

Poetry & Contemplation

a look at the subject through the lens of Karol Wojtyla's poetry

Saturday 11 February, 2012, 10am - 4pm

The day will consist of a talk, reflection and an opportunity to write and share. Bring pen and paper – a work-booklet will be provided, and also a packed lunch!

The morning begins with a 15 minutes of silence.

Donations are welcome.

Photograph © Carlo Chiopris

Karol Wojtyla was a very gifted actor and had a deep interest in literature before becoming Pope in 1978. In 1941 he co-founded a unique theatre genre called Rhapsodic Theatre and took part in 'underground' performances during World War II. He continued to write poetry and plays throughout his pontificate.

Sarah Fordham is an experienced workshop facilitator and seminar speaker. Her workshop series includes: Horizons of Hope, Poetry and Faith, Poems that Nourish, and Psalm Readings. She has led workshops in cathedrals, convents, prisons, rehabs, schools, retreat centres, and a pizza restaurant.

Sarah has completed an MA on the pastoral use of the poetry of Karol Wojtyla.

For details of Sarah's poetry and publications see her blog: <http://scfordham.blogspot.com> and <http://karolwojtylapoetry.blogspot.com>

For more information on poetry and contemplation see Events in the Contemplative Spirituality

Network website: www.contemplativespirituality.org

For directions and bookings contact us at: info@contemplativespirituality.org or 01483-771757